

My pronoun is a big deal to me; using it doesn't need to be a big deal for you.

You can use my pronoun...

...without having all the facts about transgender people and issues.

...without knowing about what my body looks like or which washroom I use.

...without knowing the whole story
about why I use this pronoun.

...without agreeing with me about everything.